Join us for an in-person "troubleshooting " workshop and discussion on Monday, September 29 at 4pm in Murray Hall 302.
Snacks will be served!

To register for the in-person workshop, email criticalai@sas.rutgers.edu.
Please include "registration" in the subject line.

If you can't make it in person, join us for the second workshop on Friday, October 3 at noon via Zoom.

Both workshops feature Lauren Goodlad, editor of Critical AI and chair of the Critical AI @ Rutgers initiative, and Sharon Stoerger, Asst. Dean for Programs and Assessment in the School of Communication & Information.
Topics will include in-class assessment strategies for teaching critical AI literacies, precluding learning loss, and maintaining academic integrity, plus open discussion for troubleshooting and sharing ideas.

Learn more about the Design Justice Labs pathway to earning a badge in teaching Critical AI literacies through TIIP.
The workshop can be applied to competencies 1, 2, and 4 for earning the badge.
